Campus Readership Initiative

“What is SGA’s Campus Readership Initiative?”

- by signing up with your Drury email, you have access to x4 news resources:

The New York Times

Springfield News-Leader

The Washington Post

USA
TODAY

“Why should I use these resources?”

- they can be used as information sources when writing research papers
- to practice civil engagement by staying up to date on what is happening around the world - staying connected is important as global citizens
- for entertainment, self-education, & inspiration - these news outlets provide access to recipes, videos, podcasts, and more! in addition to their current events reports

“How do I access these resources?”

- FORMERLY, we used to stock the newsstands around campus with the latest physically-printed copies of each newspaper
- as COVID-19 pushed our student community online/virtual, and because we wanted to be more eco-friendly, we now provide and promote access to the internet versions of these x4 newspapers
- the next few slides will break down how you can access each news platform!
