 - Sen. Ohlson: Proud to feel her voice being heard in the GA body
 - Sen. Greer: Proud of his four years in SGA and all we’ve accomplished
 - Sen. Armour: Proud of her first allocation season

- Sen. Buff: Proud of learning and growing into responsibility
 - Sen. Vonder Haar: Proud of the GA body for all the connections we've started making
 - Sen. Rispoli: Really proud about helping SGA integrate more into Drury's community
 - Sen. Gabriel: Proud of the GA's navigation of all the changes this year regarding COVID
 - Sen. O'Brien: Proud about the Minutes being transformed and about the improvement of the SGA website
 - Sen. Schupbach: Proud of the freshmen senators
 - Sen. Clouse: We're not afraid to argue with each other and bring forth ideas, completing changing projects. Proud about the new rail system.
- remarks from Paul—
 - implored the GA to enjoy their summer but return in the fall with pride about the level of collaboration and productivity of our GA
- Old Business
 - none
- New Business
 - Dean of Students Tijuana Julian—
 - commended SGA's collaboration with the university in assisting with navigating COVID
 - expressed appreciation of SGA's productivity and collaboration with faculty & staff - "most visible SGA's been on campus," hopes to see it continue!
 - this fall - classrooms might return to regular spacing, residential rules will go back to normal, masking will be the last thing lifted
 - staff = 35% vaccinated (same stats for community of SGF); students are less, expressed goal of increasing percentage vaxxed

- university marketing is looking to put together an infographic about the differences btwn the 3 vaccines approved by the USFDA in order to help students better understand which one to get based on the diff health side effects, etc.
- opened discussion to floor regarding what incentives would inspire students to get vaccinated—
 - Sen. Rispoli - suggested lift the mask mandate once stu body reaches certain percentage
 - Sen. Buff - suggested prize giveaways for people who've been vaccinated
 - VP Mueller - suggested setting campus wide vaccine % goal, incentive once reached = host outdoor event
 - Sen. Schupbach - asked if Drury will host a summer vaccination clinic
 - Dean Julian...
 - Sen. Buff - suggested a university-distributed proof of vaccination name tag etc. to wear around campus to let other students and faculty know you are fully vaccinated
 - Sen. Greer - suggested Drury Security be a check-in point for students to report if they've been vaccinated, at beg. of sem. at same time as when students pick up their car reg. stickers
 - Guest Allie Gipson - suggested university continuing to provide information on vaccines via email would help garner student-interest in getting vaccinated
 - NOTE: MyDrury is already set up for students to report if they've gotten a vaccine

- Sen. Greer - suggested university gather data on vaccination locations in bigger cities across the US and provide that info to students during summer as way to encourage students who are home for summer to get vaccinated before they return to campus
- there are plans for turfing Sunderland Field, redoing the tennis and basketball courts to include full basketball court - will be fenced in & require student ID access; architect's schematics currently include plans for shuffle ball & basketball, opened floor to suggestions ab if keep or what replace with—
 - VP Keith - suggested picnic tables or hammock areas
 - Sen. Rispoli - suggested a grilling area similar to patio outside FSC, commented that turfing Sundry field might make it seem more enclosed and reserved for Sports teams as opposed to more casual gatherings of non-athlete students
 - Sen. Schupbach - suggested a 2nd basketball court to the right of the proposed court
 - Guest Allie Gipson - suggested equipment closet inside gated court
 - VP Mueller - suggested covered seating
 - Sen. Rispoli - suggested painting/paving the basketball area
 - Sen. Greer - suggested adding lights/scoreboard on Sundry, suggested SGA help sponsor - Drury logo in the center of the field and other sponsors like SGA
 - Sen. Rispoli - asked when these renovations would be realized on campus
 - Dean Julian - when the university gets enough funding, currently putting together a grant, hope to see these completed by Fall 2022
- Sen. Greer moved to overrule the Parliamentary Procedures in order to allow open, informal discussion, seconded & passed.
